DEATH OF JAMES HARRIS.—Mr. James Harris, an old and well-known citizen, died at the Alexandria Infirmary, after a long illness, last night, from consumption. The deceased, who was over 70 years of age, had the reputation of being one of the best blacksmiths in the country. Thirty years ago he conducted the blacksmithing business for himself in an old frame building on Fairfax street, between King and Prince. This building has only recently been torn down to make room for improvements on that square. For twenty years he worked for Mr. Wm. S. Moore, of this city; he also worked in New York, Philadelphia and other principal cities of the country, always taking a leading position among his fellow workmen. He, with a few other mechanics of this city, made the winding iron stairs for the Windsor building in Washington, which at that time was considered an extraordinarily good piece of work. His death will be regretted by many friends. The funeral will take place from the Infirmary at 6 o'clock this evening.

THE ORPHAN ASYLUM.—At a meeting of the trustees of the Orphan Asylum and Female Free School held in the room of the Postmaster, yesterday evening, more than a quorum being present, Mr. Lewis McKenize was called to the chair and E. S. Leadbeater chosen secretary.

It was resolved to offer the Orphan Asylum building and school room attached to the School Board at an annual rent of $120; the School Board to put and keep the property in good repair and pay the insurance.

It was further resolved to pay for the support of six orphans now in one of the Washington Asylums and also $20 per month to Mrs. Newman, the old and faithful matron, out of any funds in possession of the trustees.

Mr. W. H. Marbury was elected Treasurer and Messrs. McKenize and Leadbeater permanent chairman and secretary.

After transacting some other business of no general interest the Board adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

HONORS TO VIRGINIA STUDENTS.—At the commencement of Georgetown College, D. C., Thursday, the degree of Master of Arts was conferred upon John A. Pizzini, editor of the Catholic Visitor, Richmond, and that of Bachelor of Arts upon John Penn Morris of Louisa co., and Peter Xavier Smith, of Norfolk, who took the gold medal for Rational Philosophy and the premium for Physics.

In First Grammar, or Freshman Class, Charles W. Seawell, of Gloucester C. H., who was a student at St. John's Academy for two years before entering the college, took both the classical and the mathematical medal, and the premium for English Literature and composition; all the honors of the class.

Several other Virginians were reported distinguished in their respective classes.

AT THE MAYOR'S OFFICE.—The two young men who engaged in the prize fight yesterday afternoon, as noticed in the GAZETTE, near the canal, for the purpose of determining which of the two was the best man, were fined $5 each by the Mayor and discharged. This fight took place on the ground occupied by the two colored women who fought last Sunday for the possession of a lover.

There were before the Mayor again this morning a large number of owners of unlicensed dogs, all of whom were required to pay a fine of one dollar and take out licenses for their canines.

THE MARKET.—The following were the prices in the market this morning: Best beef 25c per pound, cabbage 50c per head, green peas 15c per peck, string beans 40c per peck, cabbages 60c per dozen, cymplings 50c per dozen, new potatoes 60c per peck, lettuce 40c per bunch, turnips 5c per bunch, lettuce 1c per bunch, onions 12c per bunch, raspberries 20c per quart, strawberries 10c 12c per quart, gooseberries 60c per peck, butter 25c per pound, eggs 25c per dozen, chickens 50c per pair; fish—shad 50c per pair, tailors 25c per bunch and sturgeon 5c per pound. There were no tomatoes in the market, and the supply of other articles was not very large.

RIVER TRADE.—Inspector G. W. Hawxhurst reports the following arrivals at the river front:

Schrs. Maggie, Myers, and Martha Skinner, Howard, Havre De Grace, coal to T. J. Mahaffey & Co. Schrs. Maggie E. Turner, Turner, to load wheat and corn for Ocean, to Beckham & Bro. Str. Harry Loder Turner, Farmington with freight and passengers, Barge E. W. Harrigan, North Carolina, lumber to Perry Smoot & Co. Schrs. John Oliver, Foster, Rappahannock, lumber, to Perry Smoot & Co. Schrs. Isaac Solomon, Cheldin, and Thomas Franklin, Poe at the Ship Yard.

PRESENTATION.—On visiting his office last evening, the City Superintendent of Schools, who is about to retire from office found upon his table a handsomely bound set of Chambers' Encyclopedia of Useful Knowledge, 15 vols., with the following inscription: "Presented to R. L. Carne (for eleven years Superintendent) with the kindest regards of the teachers of the white schools of Alexandria." The books had been quietly placed during the week and the surprise of Mr. Carne at receiving them was complete.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Edward A. Greene, after a six years' absence in the Southern States and in Mexico, is here on a visit to his relatives. Though a young man, Mr. G. holds a responsible and lucrative position on one of the largest systems of Mexican railroads, and his many friends here will be glad to learn of his success.

Mr. French Smoot, of this city, left here yesterday on the steamer John Gibson, Capt. Geo. Young, for New York. Capt. John Young, of the ship H. L. South, has invited Mr. Smoot to make a trip to London with him.

THE WAY THEY DID IT IN RICHMOND.—The State says: "The City School Board met yesterday and re-elected all the principals and teachers of last session in the public schools of Richmond. Superintendent Garnett nominated colored teachers for the colored schools, but the Board took the ground that they could appoint teachers who were not nominated by the Superintendent, and they rejected his nominations and reappointed the old incumbents."

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Very warm weather again to-day, the mercury in the thermometer registering 92 degrees.

There was a large picnic at Rockford's Grove, in Fairfax county, to-day.

The repairs to upper Cameron street have been commenced.

After to-morrow Mass at St. Mary's Church will be held at 7 and 10 a. m.

Frank Aitchison had his foot quite badly cut by being caught in some of the machinery at Mr. DeW. Aitchison's wood yard to-day.

Mr. Albert Aitchison, of this city, won the foot race on the excursion of the Caladonian Club, of Washington, Thursday last, at Marshall Hall, and received as a prize a fine knife.

A horse attached to Mr. Bruner's lumber wagon ran away this morning. The frightened animal was stopped by Officer McCann, not, however, until the wagon was damaged, which was taken to Messrs. Summers & Bro.'s shop for repairs.

The steamer Mystic was running on the route between this city and Washington to-day, in place of the City of Washington, which was off for inspection. The steamer passed the examination of the inspectors and was placed on the route again this afternoon.

A dog with a fit jumped through the window of the residence of Mr. Chas. Sullivan, on Duke street, between Royal and Fairfax, to-day, and attacked a little baby in a cradle. The animal, which was beaten off by a lady in the house, who had her hand badly scratched, was finally killed by Mr. DeW. Aitchison. The affair created considerable excitement.

A special excursion will be run on the W. & O. R. R. to Leesburg on the Fourth of July to witness the races that are to take place there on that day. The trip will be a most agreeable one, and the races promise to be well worth seeing. A large number will doubtless attend from this city and Washington.

When your wife's health is bad, when your children are sick, when you feel worn out, use Brown's Iron Bitters.

Have received the latest styles of Spring Shoes, at the lowest prices. D. Ruben & Co., 68 King street.
